

SUPREME COUNCIL ANSWERS WILSON ADRIATIC NOTE

Negotiations for Settlement Will be Re-opened

NOTE WILL BE MADE PUBLIC

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 18.—(By The Associated Press.)—The allied supreme council regarding the Adriatic question, which caused something of a stir in this as well as the allied countries apparently has served to re-open the whole subject to negotiation. The supreme council's reply was received today at the state department but was withheld. London advices said the note was conciliatory. The state department made no comment on this but it was pretty well understood that the entente premiers' communication had at least removed the Adriatic question from the status in which it was after the council communicated its settlement to Jugo-Slavia in the form of an ultimatum without the United States being a party to the agreement.

The Jugo-Slavs were given the option of accepting the council's plan or submitting to the carrying out of the Adriatic provisions of the secret treaty of London, negotiated before the United States entered war. In this connection it was disclosed today that President Wilson in his note again came out definitely against the application of this treaty.

It was also understood that the president had taken the position that regardless of the operation of the peace treaty and the league of nations the United States should be a party to the Adriatic settlement because of its position as a co-belligerent.

A suggestion also came from Europe today that the premier had invited the American government in the event that it still held that the original Adriatic agreement should be carried out, to indicate the practical steps that could be taken to execute this agreement if it should be accepted by Italy and Jugo-Slavia.

Under the terms of this settlement to which the United States was a party, Fiume was to be erected into a free state under the league of nations and in the respects the general principles of self-determination of the people affected was to be put into force.

The seizure of Fiume by D'Annunzio it was suggested, had changed conditions in the Adriatic and the inability or indisposition of the Italian government to restore the status quo appeared to place the weight of responsibility for doing so upon the entente powers or the United States.

It was realized that none of these was willing to undertake such a move and consequently other measures to meet the case were considered.

An alternative suggestion contemplating the neutralization of the entire eastern Adriatic shores and waters was said to be nothing more than a revamping of a project made early in the negotiations on the subject and which failed of approval. There is reason to believe however, that the general tendency of the premier's note is to invite the United States to come forward with some solution of the problem.

At the state department it was said that the council's note would receive careful consideration making it evident that some time must elapse before a reply will be made.

While the department has decided not to make public the president's communication and the council's reply without the consent of France, Great Britain and Italy it was learned from authoritative sources today that the American government looked with favor on the publication of the exchanges and had taken steps to ascertain the wishes of the other governments in the matter.

A factor in the desire of the United States for publicity, it was said was the prejudiced versions of President Wilson's note which were published in the foreign press.

One thing of importance from the American viewpoint which developed today was that such decisions as are reached by the members in their London meetings are not represented as all subject to approval at subsequent meetings in Paris at which an American representative probably will be present.

While this representative will not have plenary powers to accept or reject any decision reached at the Paris meetings he will at least be able to quickly refer them to the state department.

It is known that the Paris conference will take up the question of the disposition of Turkey and as all the entente powers are on record as having requested the participation of the United States,

UPHOLD MUNICIPALITY OWNED SERVICE PLANTS

Decision Handed Down by Illinois Supreme Court in Case Against City of Springfield.

(By The Associated Press)

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 18.—Freedom from control of the state public utilities commission was assured for municipally owned public service plants by decision of the Illinois supreme court today in the case of the Springfield Gas & Electric company against the City of Springfield. The case has been in the courts three years. The court also rendered a decision upholding the right of the public utilities commission to fix the rate of fares charged by the Chicago Railways company. The February term of the court ended with the session today.

The court in its decision on the Springfield Gas & Electric company case reversed a decision which it handed down in the same case last June. Justices Carter, Stone, Duncan and Thompson concurred in the opinion today while Justices Dunn, Cartwright and Farmer disagreed. The case was filed in the Sangamon circuit court by the Springfield Gas & Electric company to obtain an injunction to prevent the municipal plant from operating without installing an accounting system recognized by the state utilities commission. The purpose of the litigation, however, was to decide whether municipally owned plants should be under the jurisdiction of the commission.

Judge E. S. Smith of the circuit court held that the company was not entitled to an injunction and the case was an appeal to the supreme court. The decision today upholds Judge Smith's decision. In the Chicago railways case the court held that the utilities commission was within its rights in authorizing a temporary increase of fares on the surface lines to seven cents pending a final investigation to establish a permanent rate. The court reversed and remanded for a new trial the case of Frank Lawhorne, convicted and sentenced to death for the murder of Mack Nottingham at Carmi, April 4, 1919. Attorneys for Lawhorne presented a plea of insanity.

HILQUIIT DEFENDS SOVIET RUSSIA

Testifies As a Witness At Assembly of Five N. Y. Legislators.

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 18.—Morris Hilquit, Socialist leader who defended Soviet Russia while testifying as a witness for the defense at the investigation of the five suspended Socialist assemblymen charged with disloyalty today denied he was a "paid counsellor or advocate" of the Russian soviet bureau in the United States or of L. C. A. K. Martens, Russian soviet "ambassador."

Under verbal cross fire from Martin Conboy, Mr. Hilquit admitted he was counsel but not "counsellor for the Russian bureau." He declared however, his appointment had not influenced his testimony and asserted he had never received any payment big or small, from the soviet government or Mr. Martens, directly or indirectly.

Mr. Hilquit said that for the last year he had advised Mr. Martens against the best way to accomplish his "worthy" mission in this country and had aided him in organization of his office.

In direct examination this morning Mr. Hilquit testified American Socialists were not Bolsheviks but that they sympathized with soviet Russia because it was conducting "a great Social experiment leading to an ideal state."

NEW RAILROAD BILL WILL GUARD WAGES OF RAIL WORKERS

Guarantees Against Reduction Before September

FINAL PASSAGE THIS WEEK

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 18.—Guarantees against any reduction in wages before next September 1, is given railroad workers in the re-organization bill reported today to the senate and house.

Railroad corporations which are to retain control and operation of their properties March 1, are safeguarded likewise by the compromise measure against reductions in rates and fares at the hands of state commissions prior to September 1, the bill providing specifically against any rate or fare reduction not approved by the interstate commerce commission the federal regulatory body.

The re-drafted reorganization measure while not prohibiting advances either in wages or in rates in the opinion of members of the conference committee subscribing to the majority report thus will tend to stabilize conditions in the railroad industry, insofar as the conferees deemed advisable.

Before presentation of the conference report and the re-drafted measure to the house where it first was received the section of the bill relative to wages was interpreted as establishing the "level effective when the properties are returned. This interpretation which later was found to be erroneous led to hurried conferences among railroad labor leaders in Washington despatching of labor representatives to the capitol to ascertain the exact provision of the measure and to the calling of a conference or tonight of officials of the fourteen railroad unions together with Samuel Gompers and Frank Morrison, president and secretary, respectively, of the American Federation of Labor. The labor leaders on learning that an advance in wages was not precluded between March 1, and September 1, under the bill, generally expressed satisfaction with the provision against any reduction of pay during the next six months.

The house fixed Saturday for consideration of the conference report agreeing to meet an hour earlier than customary so a final vote might be reached before adjournment.

Representatives Barkley, Democrat of Kentucky, a minority conferee, was given permission to file a disagreeing report. He served notice that an effort would be made to send the bill back to conference under instructions to eliminate some of the provisions. Supporters of the report, however, were confident that the report would be approved.

Chairman Cummins of the senate commerce committee announced that the report would be taken up in the senate as soon as it was sent over from the house.

COMMENT ON ALLIED NOTE TO HOLLAND

The Hague, Tuesday, Feb. 17.—The Dutch press, although inclined to regard what one newspaper calls a "display of bad temper" in the rather sharp wording of some parts of the second allied note with regard to the former German emperor in its comment generally takes the view that these parts are intended only for home consumption and that the real meaning of the note that Holland is simply asked to prevent Wilhelm from interfering with the peace of the world.

The government, the newspapers say, is undoubtedly pleased that the allied did not attempt to dictate the specific place of internment. The general feeling is that the incident would speedily be settled with Holland's expected offer to internment Wilhelm at Doorn.

WOMEN AGAINST UNIVERSAL TRAINING

Attempt Made Later to Reconsider Resolution Fails—League of Nations With Reservations Endorsed.

(By The Associated Press)

Chicago, Feb. 18.—An attempt was made in the closing session of the National League of Women Voters today to reconsider a resolution against universal compulsory military training and augmented overhead expenses. The motion to reconsider failed after spirited argument on both sides. The National American Woman Suffrage association dissolved after fighting for woman's right to suffrage since 1869. It leaves the league as its successor.

The next national meeting of the league will be called by the board of directors the time to be chosen later.

Other action taken today included endorsement of the league of nations, with the understanding that necessary reservations were sanctioned. This resolution was warmly opposed, however, and passed only after much debate.

The rights of free speech, free press and free presentation were emphatically supported. The women declared themselves opposed to any attempts to violence against the government, but warned that "ill-considered attempts to meet this difficulty" would be the real liberty of American citizens.

Maud Wood Park, of Boston heads the league according to the results of an election by the board of directors of its officers. These are the officers of the whole organization as well. Mrs. George Sellon of St. Louis is vice-chairman. Mrs. Richard Edwards of Peru, Ind., treasurer and Mrs. Solon Jacobs, Birmingham, Ala., secretary.

Beginning tomorrow a school for women voters will be held for a week.

ATTORNEYS URGE REFORMS IN STATE COURT SYSTEMS

Justice "Shops" Scored Before Constitutional Convention

OFFER MANY SUGGESTIONS

(By The Associated Press)

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 18.—The justice "shops" with their yellow dust spitoons and sawdust spittoons were given an airing before the Illinois constitutional convention today. Downstate attorneys who came to tell the convention of reforms needed in the court system declared, without exception that the justices of peace should be left out of the article on judiciary when the new constitution is framed.

Former Judge W. E. Hadley of Edwardsville suggested that in place of the justices a consolidated system of courts be established with one judge in each county to supplant the circuit, probate and county courts. This court could be known as superior court.

Edward C. Craig an attorney of Mattoon also spoke in favor of centralized courts to be established in cities and organized towns. Good roads and automobiles have made it possible for litigants to come to town to see the moving picture shows, buy their photograph records and also get their justice Mr. Craig said.

F. K. Lemon of Clinton, another speaker for abolishment of the J. P. courts, offered no substitute. The committee on judiciary decided today to hear the plan of school teachers for changes in the taxation laws on March 3rd. A program for the hearing will be arranged by Delegate Charles E. Woodward, George C. Gale and Rodney H. Brandon.

DESCHANEL NEW PRESIDENT OF FRANCE

(By The Associated Press)

Paris, Feb. 18.—At the ceremony thru which President Deschanel was formally invested with his new office today there was a felicitous exchange between him and the retiring president, M. Poincare, greeting his successor said the presidency could not be entrusted to a better man than he who had held such a brilliant place in the parliament, and who well knew how to fill the role of an impartial umpire and adviser. The new president, said M. Poincare would be able to rely on the cooperation of all Frenchmen and he expressed confidence that the striking personal merits of M. Deschanel and his ardent patriotism would inspire the country.

President Deschanel in replying thanked the retiring president remarking that in order to fulfill his duty he would have only to follow the worthy example of his predecessor who had represented France with admirable patriotism during the tragic times of the last few years. He added that he would work with his heart for the rule of law and the glory of the French republic.

NO ACTION TAKEN ON TREATY WEDNESDAY

(By The Associated Press)

Washington, Feb. 18.—The peace treaty went into eclipse again today in the senate. With private negotiations for a compromise already quieted, the leaders found no one ready to speak on the senate floor and it was agreed that the subject would not be taken up at all. Debate may be resumed tomorrow and the compromise negotiations will be continued but many senators believe the treaty fight will not be revived in earnest for some time to come. With the railroad bill and other important legislative business coming up the controversy over ratification may be permitted to drag on it was indicated today, without either side seeking to force a decision.

WOULD DETERMINE ABILITY OF PRESIDENT

Rep. Fess Proposes Measure to Have Supreme Court Rule of Ability of President to Discharge His Duties.

(By The Associated Press)

Washington, Feb. 18.—President Wilson's extended illness and the attendant discussion as to whether he was incapacitated for continuing his duties gave rise today to two proposals in the house to clarify and supplement constitutional provision on the subject.

It was made clear, however, that neither proposal was aimed at President Wilson, the intent being to define the procedure for future emergencies beyond any possibility of misconception or partisan action. The first proposal was in the form of a resolution for a constitutional amendment introduced by Representative Fess, of Ohio, chairman of the Republican congressional committee, proposing to have the supreme court determine the ability of a president to discharge his duties, whenever authorized by a concurrent resolution of congress.

Unless the constitution expressly states that congress shall be the judge of the disability of the executive, Mr. Fess said, "it is argued that it cannot safely be allowed by inference; especially would this be true where the departments might be going to different political parties."

"The uncertainty of the constitutional question would strongly argue the wisdom is not necessity of an amendment pointing the way out of a possible embarrassment."

Virtually the same procedure was outlined in a bill introduced by Representative Rodgers, Republican of Massachusetts, and referred to the judiciary committee along with the Fess resolution.

It would provide that the supreme court on the request of the senate or house should determine whether the president is "unable to discharge the powers and duties of the office within the meaning of the constitution."

LOWDEN IN FIRST DAKOTA SPEECH

Illinois Governor Advocates Reorganization of Washington Government on Business Basis.

(By The Associated Press)

Sioux Falls, S. D., Feb. 18.—"There never was a more urgent need of a reorganization of government at Washington on a business basis than at the present time," declared Governor Frank G. Lowden, of Illinois, minority Republican candidate for president at the March primaries, in an address here tonight. Lowden's speech marked the opening of the presidential campaign in South Dakota which will come to a climax at the primaries on March 23.

Governor Lowden made this statement in explaining the system of Illinois and advocating a sweeping reform of the federal budget system.

Departmental appropriations "which are sent directly to congress without any pruning, without any comparison, without any investigation whatsoever," Mr. Lowden said, "should first have the approval of an appropriation expert."

Mr. Lowden declared that the tax rates in Illinois were reduced 20 per cent last December. He said that he termed "unrest" and the high cost of living indirectly at the doors of high taxes.

"While there are other more important contributing causes there is no doubt in the world but that the present rate of taxation has led to the increased cost of living," he said. "Nobody has had the genius to work out a scheme by which you could make one class of citizens pay the taxes alone but in practice those taxes are diffused through the community and the present rate of income and excess profit in taxes, enters into the cost of everything the consumer buys."

"The whole industrial structure how we can begin when we talk of the United States is directly related to taxation. I do not see about readjustment, getting back on a normal basis—I don't see how we can handle intelligently a single one of the problems of readjustment until we have dealt effectively as we can with the question of taxation."

Governor Lowden, who is accompanied by Mrs. Lowden plans a series of five campaign speeches in South Dakota.

MIKE O'BRIEN'S FATE KNOW TODAY

No details of the sinking were given but Admiral Knapp said a court of inquiry would investigate the sinking of the barge.

GOVERNMENT AND DEFENSE CLASH IN NEWBERRY TRIAL

First Open Warfare Before Attorneys Breaks Out

MANY HOT SHOTS FIRED

(By The Associated Press)

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., Feb. 18.—Open warfare between attorneys of the government and defense broke out in the Newberry elections conspiracy trial today. Judge Clarence W. Sessions took part in one of the exchanges and the close of the incident saw the judge and Martin W. Littleton gazing at each other with flushed faces. It ended when Mr. Littleton turned to his notes.

The bitterness cropped out when Edward Ridley, the youthful government investigator who took statements from many of the defendants was undergoing cross-examination on five statements which had been introduced and read. For two hours Ridley was on the stand and during a greater portion of that time he was under fire from Mr. Littleton's heaviest batteries.

The statements were made by Cuy L. Ingalls, city treasurer of Detroit, Dr. W. H. Smith, Jr., a Muskegon dentist and head of the state free employment bureau there, E. Bruce Laing, an attorney from Dowagiac and chairman of the Cass County Republican committee, George Carrigan, another county chairman and former sheriff at LaPere, and John Wagley, a retired lake captain and farmer from Cross Village, whose long beard, weather-beaten features and red bandana neckerchief have made him one of the picturesque personages of the trial.

Wagley told that he received $10 from Will Darling, a defendant. He explained that this was given him at the close of the polls in Cross Village after he had "fulfilled his duty as an election inspector" by adding Indians to mark their ballots.

"I have done this work for several years," he said. "Primary day when I asked the Indians for whom they wished to vote they asked Newberry cards from their pockets and said 'that man'."

The statements were in affidavit form and Clarence Rasey, Juror No. 12 asked the court if they were to be regarded as sworn testimony. Ridley replied that none of men had been sworn and Mr. Littleton played on the point through the cross-examination. At one stage he asked why the phrase "of my own free will and accord" and similar formalities had been adopted for the opening. The witness started to answer and as Mr. Littleton interrupted him Frank C. Dailey, assistant attorney general, protested that Ridley should be given a chance to complete his answer. When the squall cleared, Ridley said:

"The opening paragraph was used so that the man might have a chance to refuse to sign the statement if he asked why or promises had been made to him."

"I notice that at the outset of this statement the phrase 'being duly sworn.' That was not correct was it?" asked Mr. Littleton. "He was not sworn, no sir," said Ridley.

"That was not correct was it?" persisted the attorney.

"We object, the question has been answered," interposed Mr. Eichorn.

"May I not have my question answered?" asked Mr. Littleton, turning to the court.

"It seems that was a fair answer," said Judge Sessions.

The New York attorney protested vehemently that he had asked "over and over again" that he might, "the same as the government," have his questions answered and he repeated the query.

"I say he made a fair answer," thundered Judge Sessions.

"I take exception to the fact that the court will not permit him to make a fair answer and to your honor's remark about it," snapped Mr. Littleton.

Fur sales in New York the other day totaled $1,600,000 and furs cannot be accounted as among the necessary things of life. This is just one of several indications that no lowering in living costs can be confidently expected at any early date.

The Ohio legislature has passed legislation providing the means for teaching thrift to the people of that state. Now if some method can be devised to compel the people to practice the teachings, then something really worth while will have been accomplished by the legislation.

Charles E. Hughes has made the definite and positive statement that he does not wish his name used in connection with the presidential nominees suggested in the Republican party. Mr. Hughes is undoubtedly taking a wise course in this matter, for while his worth and ability are both recognized in a country-wide way, his nomination after the defeat of 1916 would not be accounted as politically wise.

The Maryland legislature has defeated the suffrage measure by a very decided vote. This action will not be a blow to the suffrage advocates, for they have counted on this action in a number of the southern states where the manufacturers are afraid of the influence of the women, especially in relation to child labor laws.

Some local people who have not considered infant welfare work as a matter for very serious public consideration, will be interested in knowing that Springfield expects to expend this year $6,900 for this kind of work in the capital city. What has been done along this line in past years without a large expenditure of money gives reason for believing that the proposed campaign will be well worth while.

THE BUDGET SYSTEM.

The national budget system as originally proposed in a bill by Secretary McCormick has an excellent chance of adoption by congress in a revised form. The amended bill is said to contain practically all of the important points of the original. This will fix the appropriations for the several government departments and the next thing needed is some similar method for curbing the expenditures that congress makes or authorizes.

NO WONDER HE RESIGNED.

No wonder that Franklin Lane resigned from a position as oil company officer was offered to him with a $50,000 salary attached. This was four times as much as the secretary was receiving in Washington, and probably his living expenses will be less. Here's hoping that Mr. Lansing, so summarily discharged, will find an equally lucrative berth.

HAVING A HARD TIME.

The Bloomington Bulletin these days is having a hard time. It is making strenuous efforts to come to the defense of President Wilson, no matter what his actions. In the view of the Bulletin the president was entirely justified in his dismissal of the secretary of state, and now the president has done just the proper thing in his note over the Adriatic situation.

A WASTE OF PAPER.

The acuteness of the newspaper shortage is well emphasized by the measure proposed in congress limiting daily issues to 16 pages and Sunday issues to 48 pages. If this were to become a law there would be an enormous amount of print paper saved for the Sunday edition of the metropolitan papers average 100 pages. For the average reader too, this could be done without any sense of loss. The purchaser of a Sunday city paper usually throws away at least three-fourths of the paper without even glancing at the subject matter, for experience has taught him that he is not interested.

CORONER'S INQUEST ON DUNBAR CHILD

Jury Inquires into Death of Pauline Bernice Dunbar—Allege Negligence on Part of Father Responsible—Mother in Jacksonville State Hospital.

Coroner Rose empanelled a jury Wednesday and held an inquest to inquire into the death of Pauline Bernice Dunbar, who died at the home of her grandmother 806 East Lafayette avenue Tuesday night.

The jury was composed of W. T. Reaugh, foreman, W. W. Walker, Fred W. Sibert, C. E. Campbell, J. A. Crum and Louis Leurig, clerk.

The jury heard the testimony of Mrs. Mattie Thirio, grandmother of the child at whose residence she died, Oliver Lee Moss and Dr. J. U. Day. After hearing the testimony the jury returned the following verdict: "We, the undersigned jurors, sworn to inquire of the death of Pauline Bernice Dunbar on oath do find that she came to her death by lobar pneumonia and we further find that according to the evidence it was brought on by neglect in not taking care of the deceased and we recommend that the father, William F. Dunbar, be held liable for neglecting his family and that the proper officials take charge of the remaining children residing at 806 East Lafayette avenue."

The testimony of Mrs. Mattie Thirio, told of the illness of the child. She also told the jury that the child's mother was taken to Jacksonville State hospital, February 11, 1920 and is a voluntary patient there at the present time.

It will be remembered that another of the Dunbar children died several weeks ago under such circumstances that an inquest was held. The testimony at that time developed rather deplorable conditions existing in the family.

Dr. J. U. Day, who was called in the case just a few hours before the child died, testified that in his opinion the child did not have proper care at the beginning of its sickness. The physician said that had the proper care been given there might have been a chance for recovery.

Sedans—Touring—Roadsters

Overland 4 marks a fundamental advance in motor car construction—the most important improvement in comfort to the passengers and in preserving the chassis from road shocks since pneumatic tires made motoring possible.

Its Three-Point Cantilever Springs create a riding buoyancy which establishes Overland 4 as a new type of car.

There are plenty of large, luxurious cars of long wheel base which ride well on most roads, but such cars are expensive. There are small light weight cars with short wheelbase, which ride well on smooth roads and are both low in price and economical in upkeep. But Overland 4 rides well on any road. It is a third kind of car, a new type, combining the advantages of both previous types of cars.

The Point To Remember is That Clothing is Going To Cost More Next Fall

—We would strongly advise every one to buy an extra suit and overcoat now. The styles that will prevail for next Fall already are settled upon (always are six months or more in advance) and there will be no change except for the extremists. The shortage in woollens cannot be overcome, and supply and demand makes the price. You may hesitate because clothes are comparatively high now—but, they will be higher.

—The National Clothiers' association has just closed a convention in New York at which government representatives were present to investigate charges of profiteering. It was found that high clothing prices are due solely to scarcity of raw materials and high labor costs and that charges of profiteering by manufacturers and dealers is unfounded.

HUDSON GARAGE BURNS AT WHITE HALL
Fire Started at 1 o'clock This (Thursday) Morning—Loss Estimated at $50,000.

White Hall, Feb. 19.—Special to Journal—Fire which started at 1 o'clock this (Thursday) morning completely destroyed the Hudson garage and burned about thirty automobiles. The loss which is estimated at $50,000 is partially covered by insurance. While it was not possible to ascertain what insurance was carried it is thought it was only on the building and that there was little if any on the automobiles stored.

Mr. Hudson is agent for the Buick automobiles here and had just received a number of new cars and these were among those destroyed. It is not known just what caused the fire. It is thought, however, that it started from a blow torch which was left lighted in the work room. The garage was formerly occupied as a livery barn by John Wyatt and was located on the main street just south of Whiteside park. Some years ago it was entirely remodelled by Mr. Hudson for garage purposes. Owing to the isolation of the garage from the business district and the fact that there was but little wind blowing it was possible to prevent the flames from spreading. The flames had gained such headway when discovered that there was no chance to save any of the contents of the building.

Judge Eichorn termed one of Mr. Littleton's questions, "glibble upon an immaterial matter." The court said the expression was improper and Mr. Littleton remarked:
"He must be getting sensitive."
It was Judge Eichorn's turn to flush as he objected that the remark was "wholly improper."
"Both remarks were improper," ruled the court.
"I'll withdraw mine," said Mr. Littleton.
"The other was ruled out," remarked Judge Eichorn.
Just at the close of the day there was some more rapid fire. Isaac N. Freiberg, a Detroit attorney had testified that in 1918 he had been interested in the film exchange which distributed the one reel feature "our navy" to some of the theaters in Michigan. He said he had collected $14,000 of the bill from the Newberry committee which amount he had "for personal reasons" deposited to his own credit.
On cross-examination Mr. Littleton asked if the exchange had distributed other films gratuitously and simultaneously with Judge Eichorn's objection the witness answered swiftly:
"Yes sir, the Ford weekly."
The next question also had the word "Ford" in it and Judge Eichorn was again on his feet.
"I did not understand the question. May I have it repeated please," he requested.
"I asked him from whom he got his $1,000 in the Newberry headquarters in the Ford Building," explained Mr. Littleton.
Freiberg could not remember that detail.

HIGH SCHOOL PLAY GIVEN AT WINCHESTER
Senior Class Play Given Wednesday Evening at Lyric Theatre—Had Been Postponed Several Times—Other News Notes from Winchester.

Winchester, Feb. 18.—The senior class play which has been postponed a number of times, was given Wednesday evening at the Lyric theatre under the direction of Mrs. David Hainfurther. All the members of the cast acquitted themselves very creditably and much of the success of the evening was due to the efforts of Mrs. Hainfurther, who has devoted a great deal of time to the production. The several postponements meant special difficulty to the members of the cast and to the director, and that the play was finally staged in such a successful manner is a source of gratification to all.

One member of the cast, Miss Helen Kinison, was confined to her home by illness and the part was taken by Mrs. Clarice Hopkins. The cast of characters was as follows:
Admiral Gryce, retired—Otis Scott.
William Taraday of Taraday Manor—Sam Cohagan.
Col. Smith—James Tankersley.
Robert Parver (in love with Phyllis)—Harry Glossop.
Henry Steele (man about town)—Frank Redshaw.
James Raleigh (man about town)—Floyd Wallace.
Martin, family butler—Jesse Evans.
Celia Taraday, eldest daughter—Kathleen Oehler.
Madge, Mrs. Rockingham's daughter—Elizabeth Rohrig.
Evelyn, Lady Trenchard's daughter—Rowena Martin.
Phyllis, youngest daughter—Louise Dawson.
Mrs. Chisolm Taraday, Chicago (and Ida)—Helen Kinison.
Musical numbers were furnished by the high school orchestra under the direction of F. R. Waters, and much of the pleasure of the program was due to their efforts.
Miss Vera, Hieronymus of Beardstown arrived Wednesday afternoon to visit at the home of her cousin and to attend the high school play.
E. J. Frost received a message Wednesday afternoon telling of the death of Clarence Fox of White Hall. The wife of the deceased was formerly Miss Sybil Smith of Winchester, member of a family well known in Scott county. The family of the deceased will have the sympathy of many friends in this community.

NAMES FOR NEW LAKE
Editor Journal:
It seems rather difficult to select a name for the new lake. I think "Lake Pershing" would be very suitable.
Mrs. A. M. Ranson
F. M. Brewer, a former resident of Jacksonville and now in the employ of the Standard Oil Co. in the big fields near Homer, La., keeps in touch with local affairs and has written his idea of a name for the new lake. "I suggest the name of Illinois Lake," said Mr. Brewer. "You have so many state institutions in Jacksonville, several of them with the word 'Illinois' included in their official names. So I think that Jacksonville people could appropriately choose the name 'Lake Illinois.'"
Mrs. Ada Long, of 914 East Lafayette avenue, has suggested a name which she considers appropriate for the new lake. "Lake Cheer" is Mrs. Long's choice of a name for the long hoped for source of water supply. Jacksonville, Ill., Feb. 16th, 1920
Editor Journal Co.
It would appear to me in securing an appropriate name for our new lake, we adopt some name that would lend an historical meaning. I would suggest (Lake South Fork).

SWEDISH ACTRESS IS PRAISED BY CRITICS

Madame Borgny Hammer Coming Here Monday Recognized as Great Artist in Interpreting Ibsen Plays.

Madame Borgny Hammer, talented Swedish actress who is coming to Jacksonville next Monday night at Woman's College gymnasium has recently appeared in Chicago under the auspices of the board of the University of Chicago settlement.

Madame Borgny Hammer will present Ibsen's "Hedda Gabler" here under the auspices of Illinois College and Illinois Woman's College.

Hedda Gabler is the greatest society drama of modern times. The fascinating theme deals with the despair of a brilliant woman who gradually discovers her limitations. Of Madame Hammer's acting in this play James O'Donnell Bennett, writing in the Chicago Herald, said: "She clearly struck the fateful note of tragedy, and dominated the stage in quiet and in action."

Amy Leslie in the Chicago Daily News wrote:

"Mme. Hammer has frigid beauty, sharp keen features, and slender grace of body. Technically, she is accurate and polished, and her brisk intelligence, variety and depth of penetration, both intellectual and dramatic, are gracious both as gifts and accomplishments. She comes nearer a vivid revelation of Hedda Gabler than any of the popular interpreters of the Ibsen heroine. It is a wonder that more actresses have not played Hedda well, but they do not play Hedda well, Borgny Hammer does."

Madame Hammer is a constant student of Ibsen, and is an authority on the stage interpretation of his plays. Being able to read the great Norwegian playwright in his own native language, and having lived among the people who were the direct inspirations of his plays, she can appreciate to the fullest his art and his message.

She makes no errors in her interpretations of Ibsen drama. Even though in her present production she is using the best English translation of the Ibsen plays, she has found many places where the translator failed to understand the exact meaning which the playwright wrote into his plays, and she does not hesitate to change a line here and there.

This remarkable understanding of the plays she is acting, coupled with her tremendous dramatic power, make her presentations a rare treat for lovers of the theater. Her work in Hedda Gabler is particularly noteworthy.

Tickets at Brown's Music store on sale today.

Tickets for Madame Borgny Hammer in Ibsen's "Hedda Gabler" may be reserved beginning 9 a. m. today at Brown's Music Store.

CHERRY LIVERY STOCK TO BE SOLD

Big Building Will Be Used For Automobile Storage.

At no distant date a public sale will be held at the well known Cherry barn on North Main street when horses, buggies and other vehicles in large number will be sold. The advance of the automobile has practically put an end to the livery business as it existed a few years ago. It is for that reason that John Cherry some months ago determined to prepare his establishment for the storage of automobiles.

Some attention will also be paid to the washing of cars and other work in connection with them, also it is not the intention to maintain a garage in the ordinary acceptance of the term. There is an immense amount of floor space available for storage and parking purposes on the two floors of the Cherry barn building. Ralph Withee is the manager of the establishment.

INCOME-TAX FACTS YOU SHOULD KNOW.

Bridegrooms are worrying as to how they shall figure their Income Tax. A constant stream of inquiries from the newlyweds is reaching the Internal Revenue officials. In many of these cases both the bride and groom were employed up to the wedding date, and the principal point on which advice is asked is as to whether the bride's income must be shown on the groom's return.

The answer as given by the Internal Revenue men is that all of the earnings and other income of both the bride and the groom for the year 1919 must be considered, even if it was all spent on trousseaus, wedding trips, and honeymoons. The fact that they were married on or before December 31 joins them for the whole year, so far as Income Tax is concerned.

A bride of 1919 is in duty bound to figure up her income and to add to it hubby's 1919 earnings to determine whether an Income Tax return is required. If the total was $2,000 or more, a return must be made; in which case both bride and groom may file separate returns or must file a joint return. The latter method is preferred by the collectors, unless the aggregate income of both husband and wife is $5,000 or over.

And they all want to know whether altho married only part of the year 1919, they are entitled to claim full exemption as a married couple. The answer is a decided yes; they are allowed $2,000 plus $200 for each dependent who is under 18 or who, through age, defect, etc., is incapable of self-support. This exemption may be split in any proportions on the separate returns of husband and wife, if they file that way.

"And remember that March 15 is the final date for filing returns and paying Income Taxes," is the warning that the Revenue men add to the above advice.

PRINT ECONOMY IS URGENT NEED

Chairman of Conservation Committee Again Points to Conditions Dangerous for Newspaper Publishers.

Edgar E. Bartlett, of Rockford who is state newspaper representative to urge co-operation in the conservation of paper, has received the following letter from Bradford Merrill, who is chairman of the national committee on newsprint conservation.

This letter is transmitted to W. L. Fay, district chairman, in order to reach the attention of newspaper publishers in this district. The letter from Mr. Merrill again emphasizes the acuteness of the situation.

New York, February 7, 1920.

Dear Mr. Bartlett: The campaign to save paper is being carried out with energy and success in a few cities and districts but co-operation is lacking in many. The saving of newsprint so far effected is not sufficient to meet the necessities of the present news-print situation.

Much more is involved in this campaign than mere economy in the use of news-print. Your attention is called to the list of bills which have been introduced in the present Congress, printed in our special News-print bulletin Nos. 9 and 10. The shadow of government control menaces the entire publishing business. It has happened in England with disastrous results and it may come here. Unless a definite record of economy and decreased consumption of news-print is made, and without delay, I believe that Congress will pass drastic legislation.

I would, therefore, suggest that you specifically call this to the attention of the various publishers in your district and also would urge, if you have not already done so, that you make special efforts to have regional conferences and meetings, and have local associations put into effect the spirit of co-operation and conservation outlined in the resolutions adopted at the A. N. P. A. Convention held in New York, November 12th.

I would also ask that you keep me fully advised of meetings and resolutions in your district, forwarding such information promptly to M. L. B. Palmer, manager of the A. N. P. A., World Building, New York City, so that the reports may be used in our special News-print bulletins, for the information of publishers generally, and at the same time establish a record of the activities of the A. N. P. A. Committee on Co-operation and Conservation.

Very Truly Yours,
BRADFORD MERRILL.

BOARD OF EDUCATION STATEMENT

The sentiment of the Board of Education has been to pay the teachers all the funds at their command will permit.

The action of the Board has been to ask the voters for an increase of the levy for educational purposes from 1-13 to 2 per cent in order that the salary of the teachers may be increased. The whole increase will be applied to educational purposes in good faith and no part withheld from the salary budget save such part as the law requires to be applied to concurrent expenses.

As to the matter of increasing the pay of teachers during the current year there has been no formal action. From the expressions heard among the members I have no hesitation in saying they will carefully seek a method to make any increase the people vote available promptly and adjust the budget to the increase voted by the people.

JULIAN P. LIPPINCOTT,
President of the Board of Education.

Try Making Your Own Cough Remedy

You can save about $2, and have a better remedy than the ready-made kind. Easily made.

If you combined the curative properties of every known "ready-made" cough remedy, you probably could not get as much real curative power as there is in this simple home-made cough syrup, which is easily prepared in a few minutes.

Get from any druggist 2½ ounces of Pinex, pour it into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with syrup, using either plain granulated sugar syrup, clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, as desired. The result is a full pint of really better cough syrup than you could buy ready-made for three times the money. Tastes pleasant and never spoils.

This Pinex and Syrup preparation gets right at the cause of a cough and gives almost immediate relief. It loosens the phlegm, stops the nasty throat tickle and heals the sore, irritated membranes so gently and easily that it is really astonishing.

A day's use will usually overcome the ordinary cough and for bronchitis, croup, hoarseness and bronchial asthma, there is nothing better. Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and has been used for generations to break severe coughs. To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with full directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. ## FRED MOHR GOES TO DALLAS POST

Former Jacksonville Man to Manage Gulf Division Station for Western Union Telegraph Company.

Mrs. Fred H. Mohr of St. Louis was a visitor in Jacksonville yesterday and left for Springfield on the evening train for a short visit with her sister, Mrs. Annie C. Dickson. Mrs. Mohr will leave soon for Dallas, Texas, where Mr. Mohr has just been transferred from St. Louis to become the acting general manager for the Gulf division of the Western Union Telegraph Co.

In this position Mr. Mohr will have charge of the company's large interests in the states of Oklahoma, Louisiana, Texas and Arkansas, a position of great responsibility.

It was about twenty years ago that Mr. Mohr was the local manager for the Western Union Telegraph Co. Afterward he was transferred to another city and in the course of a short time became manager at Milwaukee, where he was located for fourteen years. From that city he went to St. Louis about 18 months ago. The preference given him is of course in recognition of the efficiency of the services performed for the company.

FARM ORGANIZATIONS MEMBERSHIP GROWS

Number Enrolled Is Now Nearing One Thousand Mark.

The campaign in Morgan county for membership in the local farmers club and the Illinois Agricultural association progresses very satisfactorily. Already 935 names have been enrolled and still some canvassing work remains to be done. It can be confidently stated that the total membership for the two organizations in Morgan county will be more than 1,000. As these membership agreements run thru a three year period, it is easy to understand that the farming interests of the county now have a very strong and effective organization.

PYTHIANS ARRANGE FOR THREE BIG DAYS

Plans For Second Annual Love Feast Completed—D. O. K. K. Ceremonial Session Will be Final Event.

Knights of Pythias of Jacksonville will begin the three days' sessions of their second annual love feast next Sunday. The events as arranged for the three days are of a kind to emphasize the value and strength of Pythianism. Jewell E. Scott and George Wiseman are masters of events and as indicated, the program will begin Sunday when the Knights assemble at Castle Hall at 10 o'clock to attend services at First Baptist church. Rev. A. A. Todd will deliver the sermon. A program of special music has been arranged.

At Castle hall at 1:30 in the afternoon there will be the Pythian love feast for all members and visiting Knights and an address will be delivered by Dr. Walter E. Spoons. At 3 o'clock there will be a social hour with music and at 5 o'clock refreshments will be served.

Monday morning at 10 o'clock the school of instruction will be opened with L. B. Turner presiding and the secret work will be exemplified by George Gerlach and Alfred C. Smith. Lunch will be served at 12 o'clock.

Will Put on Work.

At 1:30 in the afternoon Jacksonville Lodge No. 152 will be in charge of the opening and at 1:45 Hon. John J. Reeve, representative of the supreme lodge, will make an address of welcome to the visiting Pythians. At 2 o'clock the rank of page will be conferred by Jacksonville Lodge No. 152 on two candidates from each lodge.

At 3 o'clock the rank of esquire will be conferred by Favorite Lodge No. 376. At 4:30 Al Douglas, grand keeper of records and seals, Chicago, will make an address. From 5 to 6 o'clock will be spent socially and with a short musical program, and then will come dinner. At the night session which will open at 8 o'clock the rank of knight will be conferred by a joint team from the two local lodges.

There will be no exercises during the day, Tuesday, but at 6 p. m. there will be a banquet at Castle hall, followed by a D. O. K. ceremonial at 8 o'clock. There are numerous candidates who have signed up for the D. O. K. K. degree and neighboring cities will be well represented, in addition to Jacksonville, in the list of votaries.

"The Tiger", the publication devoted to the interests of Pythianism and which is issued at intervals, devotes four pages of space to the love feast events. An editorial in "The Tiger" referring to the three days' program reads as follows:

An Editorial.
Once again we start on a three day offensive in our effort to boost further Pythianism in Jacksonville. Our past efforts have rewarded us richly and it is our hope that the success of the coming three days session will be all that is expected.

The program includes a united attendance at church by all Pythians, a school of instruction, the exemplification of the ranks of Pythianism, two real banquets and a heart breaking, soul-inspiring tyro-killing D. O. K. K. ceremonial.

Every Pythian worthy of the name will be back of, in front of and in the midst of all these events. It is true that all Pythians are not Dokays but they ought to be, and will be, if really interested in knowing the full true meaning of Pythianism.

So come on everybody and let us make the three days and worth of full of real joy and ardor—while happenings for every true Pythian.

WEATHER CONDITIONS UNUSUAL IN YEAR 1919

Climatological Data for Illinois
Shows Extraordinary Conditions During Year 1919.

White Hall, February 17.—The Climatological Data for Illinois, has just been issued by Clarence J. Root, meteorologist, Springfield, and shows that the year 1919 featured some extraordinary events. After the first decade of January the winter was mild and open, with excessive sunshine and very light precipitation in January and but little snow covering in February. It was the warmest winter in thirty years, and the snowfall was the least of record. Frost and fall seven wheat—came through in good condition. During March and April vegetation advanced satisfactorily, and farm operations made good progress. In the spring there were floods in the Illinois and Mississippi rivers. Damaging frosts occurred on April 26. May was cold and wet, and was unfavorable for agriculture.

June and July were rather warm, and throughout the summer the rain was of the local shower type, with some damage by local storms. Corn in the southern division was poor because of the wet spring. All sunshine records were exceeded in July. The summer was favorable for harvesting, threshing and haying operations. Fifty-five per cent of the year's precipitation occurred during the crop-growing season. September and October were rather mild. Corn matured before the advent of killing frosts in October and November, and at the close of the year the harvest was practically completed.

Record-breaking rains occurred in October, breaking all records in the amount of precipitation and the number of days with rain. December was cold and dry, with very little snowfall over the south two-thirds of the state. An examination of the annual averages and extremes for the state discloses the fact that the snowfall was the least since state-wide records began in 1895, being three inches less than the record for 1902. There was an unusual number of clear days, and the absolute minimum temperature was within four degrees of the record. For White Hall the total rainfall for the year is shown to be 35.77 inches, 0.48 inch below normal, the total for the record-breaking month of October being 8.27 inches. The average temperature at White Hall was 54.4 degrees, 1.1 degrees above normal. The highest was 100 in July 29 and the lowest 8 below zero in January 3. The total snowfall was 7 inches. There were 91 days with 0.01 inch of precipitation or more, 77 clear days, 108 partly cloudy and 109 cloudy days. The prevailing direction of the wind was from the south.

WOMEN HAVE PART IN FINANCE WORLD

Stockholders' Lists of Four Representative Illinois Companies Reveal Interesting Statistics.

In this age of "woman's rights" are our sisters, mothers and wives anxious to become the "51 per cent" influence in financial affairs, as well as wield the predominant balance of power at the polls?

It may prove a jolt to the brothers, sons and husbands to know that of the 230,000 direct owners of stock in electric, gas, traction and telephone companies of the state women are estimated to own 30 per cent of the shares, and they are still buying. Furthermore, they are obtaining ownership principally in the home public utility companies, those of whom they are customers thereby establishing both the relationship of a patron and proprietor.

Figures taken from the stockholders' lists of four of the 2,000 utility companies of Illinois give some startling statistics as to "woman ownership." These show women to own over one-third of the stock. They further indicate that more than 80 per cent in one instance as much as 93 per cent of the stock is owned in the communities served by the companies.

Analysis of the first company's list showed 163 out of 593 stockholders to be women. Of the total number 563, or 93 per cent, resident in Illinois, they living in 53 communities, of which 50 were towns of under 2,000 inhabitants. Twelve stockholders gave rural route addresses. There were 420 male stockholders and 12 banks, 2 lodges and 1 college were listed as owners.

The 35 stockholders living outside Illinois, they being 6 per cent of the total, were found to have been resident from coast to coast, the states being Montana, 1; Missouri, 4; New York, 4; Massachusetts, 4; California, 3; Michigan, 4; Connecticut, 3; District of Columbia, 1; Texas, 3; Kentucky, 1; New Hampshire, 1; Ohio, 1; New Jersey, 2; Georgia, 1; Utah, 1; Canada, 1.

The second Illinois Company was found to have 243 stockholders, the ownership being divided among 155 men and 74 women, there being 13 banks and one church represented as owners. This company furnishes services across the state line to several communities. The places of residence of its owners were found to be Illinois, 74; Indiana, 62; Kentucky, 24; Wisconsin, 8; Maine, 2; Texas, 1; Pennsylvania, 8; Vermont, 1; Iowa, 3; Michigan, 6; Minnesota, 9; Delaware, 2; Louisiana, 3; Washington, 1; Arizona, 1; Missouri, 1; New York, 5; Georgia, 1; Idaho, 1; Maryland, 1; California, 1; Canada, 1; Ohio, 2.

The stockholders list of a small company showed 113 owners, they living in 24 separate communities, all of which were under 2,000 inhabitants. Of the total number 77 stockholders are men, 31 are women and 5 are banks and trust funds. All stockholders live in the state, with the exception of 1 who lives in Indiana.

The fourth company has 399 stockholders of whom 283 are men and 92 are women. The banks and trust funds represented number 23. Of the shareholders, the place of residence were found to be Illinois, 295; Indiana, 33; Wisconsin, 5; Pennsylvania, 8; Kentucky, 18; California, 4; Massachusetts, 3; New Jersey, 1; Missouri, 4; Washington, 2; Ohio, 4; Maine, 3; Michigan, 2; South Carolina, 1; New York, 6; Texas, 2; Colorado, 2; Minnesota, 2; Louisiana, 2; Tennessee, 1; Georgia, 1.

The stockholders' roster of these four companies, said to be typical of the ownership of the utility industry of this state, shows 361 women as owners as compared with 935 men. In addition to this feminine ownership there are 53 banks and trust funds; 2 lodges; 1 college and 1 church represented, in which the women are represented as indirect owners.

One more old soldier, No monument needing;
Chaplets of flowers weave not for his bier.
Let the Star Spangled Banner

Flag of his country he ever held dear.

One more old soldier. Taps sounds in his evening;

FIND OUT JUST WHAT CAUSES YOUR RHEUMATISM

When You Will Be Able to Treat It Intelligently.

The medical profession has not yet fully determined all of the causes of Rheumatism, though they are pretty well agreed on two points.

The first is, that the disease is more than a mere local trouble, that the pangs of pain come from a source that is far below the surface, and therefore it is not reasonable to expect any rational relief from a treatment that is locally applied and reaches only the surface.

When you realize the logic of this conclusion, you will see that you are really wasting your time and money if you are expecting any permanent relief from the use of liniments, lotions, and other locally applied treatment, which can only reach the surface, and have no effect whatever upon the origin of your trouble.

Any disease should be treated at its source, and especially one that causes as much suffering as Rheumatism. The only treatment worth while is one that will show progress toward getting at the source of the disease, and freeing the victim from its shackles.

The other point that the medical profession has agreed upon is that some forms of Rheumatism are caused by a tiny disease germ in the blood, which multiplies by the million, and until these germs are routed from the blood, you can see how futile local treatment will be. In fact, you can use liniments by the gallon and never hope to reach the cause of your trouble.

So many people have found real permanent relief from their Rheumatism by the use of S. S. S. that its use is justified in practically every case. Certainly if your Rheumatism is due to a germ in the blood, as so many thousands of cases are, you should lose no time in beginning the use of S. S. S. because you can rely upon this fine old blood remedy to do you more good than any other treatment.

S. S. S. is beneficial in Rheumatism because it is such a thorough blood medicine. It cleanses the blood of all impurities, and eradicates the germs which cause Rheumatism. The wonderful results it has accomplished in other cases is proof of its great merit. S. S. S. has been on the market for more than fifty years and is sold by all druggists.

You are invited to write our medical department for full information and advice about the treatment of your own case, for which no charge is made. Address: Chief Medical Adviser, 11 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Georgia.

THE MEAT PRICE OUTLOOK

by
J. OGDEN ARMOUR

There is today a new relation between the meat packers and the public—new in that the packers are no longer to be purveyors of general food lines and are to confine themselves to the slaughtering of live stock and to the manufacturing and distributing of meat and by-products and the so-called dairy products.
This change in the conduct of business is the result of the desire on the part of the meat packers to acquire in the government's demand that they take such action as will forever remove any and all fear that too great a portion of the nation's food supply will be handled by too few business firms.
In the opinion of the meat packers there was no reason to fear any domination of the nation's food supply. Men who know and whom the food business realize there can never be a monopoly of a product which anybody can produce and which anybody can market. Service alone is the instrument for increasing the volume of business handled by a firm dealing in food and the growth of certain of the large packers indicates more than anything else that they have been able to serve and serve well.

There was and is economic justification for their size and their handling of many food lines.
In building up their businesses they acted in accord with the law and with the ethics of business. But for all that, the fear had been nurtured in the minds of many people that bigness implies power, and that power might be abused, and that therefore, despite their efficiency and despite their ability to serve the public well the meat packing firms were too large. While emphatically denying that there is any ground for such fears the packers as good citizens bowed to the wishes of the government and voluntarily consented to confine their activities in the future to the meat food and by-product business.
Instantly following announcement of the attorney general came queries as to the probable effect upon the price of meat and other foods. The answer is not an easy one because of the importance of the factors other than those incident to the packing industry. The packers have maintained that by reason of handling enough so-called outside lines to keep their distributive organization working at maximum capacity at all times, they have lessened the cost of distributing foods and have benefitted the public through holding prices at levels lower than would otherwise prevail.

Those who have been loudest in the demand for limitations on the activities of the meat packers have insisted that the elimination of the packers from lines
other than meat and by-products would result in increased competition and consequent lowered prices.

Lowering the price of meat is not so simple a matter that it can be brought about by the stroke of a pen or through merely increasing the number of firms engaged in the business of slaughtering and distributing.
The raw material represents about 85 per cent of what the packers get for the finished product. In other words, the meat and by-product business today is being conducted on a margin of approximately 15 per cent gross.
Out of this 15 per cent is paid labor and other costs of manufacture, all distribution and selling charges, taxes and such other items as are incident to the doing of business. Out of this 15 per cent also comes whatever profit
the business makes.

It should be recognized that this gross profit margin is the real measure of efficiency attained by the packing industry. No other essential business so far as we know has perfected its organization and operations to a point where it maintains itself and provides a profit at so low a gross margin. It means that the products which the packers handle are manufactured and passed on the way to the consumer with less increase in price than is the case with other products of industry.

In the early days of the packing industry business was not conducted on such a narrow margin. For example, in 1870 the spread between the cost of raw materials and the wholesale value of the finished product was in the neighborhood of 25 per cent. Magnitude of operation, economies in manufacture, improved methods of distribution brought about a reduction of this margin to its present much lower figure, and this reduction in margin has meant the saving of millions of dollars to the consuming public.

As compared to the importance of gross profit, net profit is of little real consequence, but here again the packing industry stands by itself. The net profits in the meat packing business has represented over a period of years only about 2 per cent on the volume of business transacted.
A 2 per cent profit is infinitesimal when applied to the daily meat purchase of the average consumer. It amounts to less than 1/2 of 1c per pound of meat and in the quantity of meat consumed in a year by the average American citizen the packers' profit amounts to less than a dollar.
Through the handling of millions upon millions of pounds of meat these infinitesimal profits foot up into totals which give a fair though not exorbitant return on the capital actually invested in the business. Over a period of eighteen years Armour and Company's actual profits on actual investment have averaged a fraction less than 9 percent per annum. The profits for 1919 were but 6.7 per cent on the invested money.

The margins and earnings in the packing business have for many years been so small as compared with the margins and earnings of other businesses that there has been a disposition on the part of many to discredit packers' financial statements.
Happily this matter of margins and profits has been officially cleared up in the report of the United States Food Administration for its fiscal year 1918, wherein it was stated:
"The profits on controlled products of the packers, subject to this control, during the first year of such regulation, from November 1, 1917, to November 1, 1918,
as shown by audited accounts,
were $40,594,935 on an investment average for the year of $714,181,204, a net profit on the total investment for one year under the rules of the Food Administration of 5.6 per cent, or considerably less than the maximum allowed by those rules. On the gross sales of $2,434,113,- 430 the profit of $40,594,935 represents a percentage of only 1.6 per cent."

Service such as the meat packers have been giving, with profits such as have obtained, is without parallel in the business world.
The packers hope that the new arrangement will not make necessary any increase in the gross margin on which meat is handled.
It must be evident, however, that some way must be found to make up for the loss occasioned by our getting out of the grocery business. If a sales organization works only part of the time—as during a dull season, the expense of distribution is naturally increased. If the withdrawal from the grocery business makes it impossible for us to operate our plants or refrigerator cars at or near capacity it cannot help but increase our overhead charges and such increase must necessarily be reflected in the cost of the product we handle.

Relinquishment of financial interest in stock yards may or may not have an effect upon the price of meat. The stock yards have been operated efficiently and the cost of the services rendered has been remarkably low. If the yards in the future are conducted with economic efficiency—and Armour and Company sincerely hope that they will—expenses will not advance enough to have an appreciable effect upon the price of meat but if efficiency is lessened and if costs materially increase the price of meat will be affected adversely to the best interests of the consuming public.

The future trend of meat prices
however, cannot possibly be greatly affected by the change in the manner of conducting the packing industry. Inasmuch as some 85 per cent of the wholesale cost of the finished product is represented by the cost of the raw material purchased by the packer, it is evident that in this $5 per cent lies the answer as to whether prices will go up or down. The cost of the live meat animal is dependent largely upon the cost of corn and other feeds and labor and such factors as taxes and freight rates. These factors are not affected by the arrangement brought about by the attorney general. If the farmer's cost of production drops through decrease in the price of corn or labor or other things which he most needs have in order to produce cattle, the price of meat will come down, but if these costs continue to climb as they have in the past several years, there will be no reason to expect cheaper meat.

Good will is the strongest asset of any business. The meat packers believe they will achieve a stronger measure of public approval than they have in the past because we have displayed—at considerable sacrifice, a willingness to aid the government, producers and consumers in any possible measure designed to aid in restoring general confidence during the trying readjustment period in which this and all other nations are floundering.

We are going all the way with the government and the public and all we ask is that we be accorded the confidence of the public and intelligent consideration of the problems incident to our business.

Thousands of Women

Owe Their Health To

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—overshadowing indeed is the success of this great medicine. Compared with it, all other medicines for women's ills seem to be experiments. Why is it so successful? Simply because of its sterling worth. For over forty years it has had no equal. Women for two generations have depended upon it with confidence.

Thousands of Their Letters are on our files, which prove these statements to be facts, not mere boasting.

Here Are Two Sample Letters:

Mother and Daughter Helped.

Middleburg, Pa.—"I am glad to state that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did me much good when I was 35 years old. I was run down with female trouble and was not able to do anything, could not walk for a year and could not work. I had treatment from a physician but did not gain. I read in the papers and books about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and decided to try it. The first few bottles gave me relief and I kept on using it until I got better and was able to do my work. The Vegetable Compound also regulated my daughter when she was 15 years old. I can recommend Vegetable Compound as the best medicine I have ever used."—Mrs. W. YERGEN, R. 3, Box 21, Middleburg, Pa.

WOMEN NOW ISSUE STATE BLUE BOOK

Republican Organization of Illinois Have Outlined Platform of Reason For Support G. O. P.

Illinois has a new "Blue Book" which lists not prominent individuals but pertinent reasons for belonging to the G. O. P. party. The first issue is being distributed in the state this week by district, county and precinct chairmen of the Illinois Republican Women's Executive Committee. Mrs. John J. Reeve is chairman of the Republican Women's Executive Committee of the 20th District, and Mrs. W. L. Alexander, chairman of Morgan County. The booklet will be published each month from now until election next November.

Miss Helen Bennett, former newspaper woman and well known in the Midwest as director of the Chicago Collegiate Bureau of Occupations, has been selected by Mrs. Fletcher Dobyns, chairman, to head the literature committee of the Republican women's organization. Her first work has been to edit the Blue Book. Adapting the suggestion of Republican State Chairman, Frank L. Smith, that the party adhere to a platform "one could put in a hat," the women are issuing the leaflet in pocket size that may be tucked into a purse or slipped without folding into a coat pocket. Thus armed, Republican women can take to the stump at a moment's notice equipped with argument-proof reasons for belonging to the G. O. P.

Among the strong political points stressed in the current issue are the following:

ABUSIVE CHILD

A child should not look thin or worn. Such condition denotes malnutrition. Keep up growth and robustness a child needs a plenty of food rich in vitamins.

Scott's Emulsion

abundant in growth-promoting properties, is an ideal supplemental food that could well be a part of the diet of every growing child.

Child's health always do well on Scott's Emulsion.

Scott's Emulsion, London, N. Y.

Always dependable.

"Only by working together can the people with common political principles hope to see them applied to government. Individuals may start movements, but it takes organization to see them through. A party furnishes the machinery for putting theories into practice."

"The voter who will not join a party but claims the right to pick candidates from any or all parties and to vote for the 'best man' blocks the machinery of progress. The men that he picks will not pull together. You cannot move an engine unless the wheels are all turning in the same direction."

"The Republican party is the best party because it has put through more reforms than all the other parties together."

Serving on the literature committee with Miss Bennett are: Mrs. George W. Plummer, Misses Margery Fassett, Anne Forsythe, Clarice Nissley, Estelle Bennett and Margaret Torrison.

Chairman Frank L. Smith has appointed Miss Estelle Arnold of Chicago a member of the Women's Executive Committee. She is a well known welfare worker and a niece of Col. John R. Marshall, Spanish war veteran and formerly in charge of the Eighth Regiment.

Complete organization of the state with county, town and precinct chairmen serving with district chairmen will be completed by March 1st, according to the statement from Mrs. Dobyns' office.
